

SCCC – GOD IS MY REFUGE

S – Scriptures

“Look and see, there is no one at my right hand; no one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no one cares for my life.” Psalm 144: 4

C – Consideration

The Psalmist in this verse was facing a terrible battle in his soul. The main reason was because in the midst of his difficulties, he looked for those who were close to him for help, and they all turned their back in a time of great need. It seems that he had one or maybe more problems, and he became disappointed as he discovered that everyone he had counted on didn't comfort him.

C – Commitment

I found in verse five the answer to his dilemma as he wrote: “I cry to you, Lord; I say, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.” How many times I got in the same trap. I became bitter and angry at people who I thought could help me, and they didn't. Meditating on these Scriptures, I just saw a great lesson: My refuge is in the Lord, not in people. My resources come from the Lord, not from people. Otherwise, I will take the glory due to God and give it to men. Yes, many times God used different people to help and bless my life, and I am very grateful to them, however, was the Father who sent them to me, which changes everything. When struggles come, I will cry out to my God, and He will hear me, and I will never be disappointed with anyone else.

C – Call

My Heavenly Father, thank you for your word that had reminded me that I should be angry with no one who would not answer me when I had asked their help. Was not them that didn't help me, was you, Lord corrected and calling me to put my trust in you alone. Forgive me my Father to keep resentment in my heart towards others. In Jesus's name, I pray. Amen!
